NATURAL RESOURCES

Partners for Fish and Wildlife (PFW)

Fish and Wildlife Service

DEADLINE: September 30, 2026

AWARDS: $1 to $750,000. No match.

ELIGIBILITY: Federally recognized Native American tribal governments, Public and Indian housing authorities, Other Native American tribal organizations, and Nonprofits non-higher education with 501(c)(3).

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Partners for Fish and Wildlife (PFW) Program helps private landowners, including lands owned by tribes, restore and protect habitats for fish and wildlife. It offers both technical assistance and financial support, mainly through cooperative agreements. To get funding, PFW projects must be on private lands. "Private lands" means any properties not owned by the state or federal government. Click here to explore this opportunity.

COMMUNITY INFRASTRUCTURE

Building Resilient Infrastructure and Communities (BRIC)

Department of Homeland Security - FEMA

DEADLINE: July 23, 2026

AWARDS: Up to $150,000,000. No minimum. Match of 10%-25% required.

ELIGIBILITY: Federally recognized Native American tribal governments and other Native American tribal organizations, city or township governments.

This grant funds hazard mitigation through investment in infrastructure and construction projects that deliver immediate, measurable risk reduction to communities vulnerable to natural hazards. BRIC emphasizes the adoption and enforcement of modern building codes and limits building activities to those directly tied to infrastructure resilience. Click here to explore this opportunity.

LANGUAGE, CULTURE & HERITAGE PRESERVATION

Vadon Foundation Grant

Vadon Foundation

DEADLINE: Rolling. A letter of inquiry is required.

AWARDS: Award amount and cost sharing are not listed, but the median award is $75,000. There are limits on indirect cost rates.

ELIGIBILITY: Native Communities

Vadon Foundation funds programming that seeks to strengthen Native communities. They look for leaders who aspire to break multi-generational cycles to create better possibilities for future generations.

The Vadon Foundation funds projects related to language revitalization, Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Two-Spirit People (MMIWG2S), innovative community leadership, food insecurity and essential needs. Click here to explore this opportunity.

Media Projects

National Endowment for the Humanities

DEADLINE: June 25, 2026

AWARDS: $1-$700,000. No match.

ELIGIBILITY: Federally recognized Native American tribal governments, nonprofits non-higher education with 501(c)(3), special district governments, city or township governments.

The Media Projects program supports the development, production, and distribution of radio programs, podcasts, and documentary films that engage general audiences with humanities ideas in creative and appealing ways. Projects must incorporate an approach that is thoughtful, balanced, and analytical. Proposals must demonstrate the potential to attract a broad general audience and should be intended for national or regional distribution. Click here to explore this opportunity.

Mutual of America's Community Partnership Award

Mutual of America Foundation

DEADLINE: July 1, 2026

AWARDS: $50,000–$100,000. No match. This is an honorary award.

ELIGIBILITY: Nonprofits

The Mutual of America Foundation Community Partnership Award recognizes outstanding nonprofit organizations in the United States that have shown exemplary leadership by facilitating partnerships with public, private or social sector leaders who are working together as equal partners, not as donors and recipients, to build a cohesive community that serves as a model for collaborating with others for the greater good.

Each year, the Mutual of America Foundation sponsors a national competition in which hundreds of organizations demonstrate the value of their partnership to the communities they serve, their ability to be replicated by others, and their capacity to stimulate new approaches to significant social issues. Indian Child Welfare Act Title II Grants – Public Safety

Bureau of Indian Affairs

DEADLINE: June 16, 2026

AWARDS: $100,000–$300,000. 20% match required.

ELIGIBILITY: Nonprofits or other Native American Tribal Organizations.

The intent of the Indian child and family service programs is to provide services for stabilizing Indian families and Tribes, preventing the breakup of Indian families and to ensure that the permanent removal of an Indian child from the custody of his/her Indian parents or Indian custodian should be a last resort. Weatherization Assistance Program

Alaska Community Development Corporation

DEADLINE: Open year-round.

AWARDS: Dependent upon scope of work; match optional.

ELIGIBILITY: Low-to-moderate income households in the Chugach Census Area, Copper River Census Area, or Kenai Peninsula Borough who own or rent eligible homes: apartments, cabins, condominiums, houses, mobile homes, and multi-family dwellings (duplexes and larger). Priority is given to households with seniors (55+), residents who experience disabilities, children under 6 years old, and/or households with income at or below 200% of the poverty level.

Weatherization helps low-to-moderate-income households who own or rent eligible homes: apartments, cabins, condominiums, houses, mobile homes, and multi-family dwellings (duplexes and larger). Thousands of qualified Alaskans have received free home weatherization to bring their homes up to safe, healthy, and energy-efficient standards. Weatherization adds years of life to buildings in Alaska's harsh arctic climate. It also benefits energy conservation, saving homeowners on their previous heating bills. The Weatherization Assistance Program is available to renters and homeowners throughout the state. A home may be weatherized once every 15 years. Even though applications are accepted year-round, there is always a wait list, as most work is done during the construction season. Applying early may help expedite the process. ELIGIBILITY: Typically, organizations that have received a past award or grant from the Foundation. First-time applicants are encouraged to start with a Tier 1 proposal. Community Support Grants fund capital projects and projects with a broad community impact. The one-step application is accepted online year-round from organizations with a track record of successful community collaboration and project management.

Applications for capital projects from prior Foundation grant recipients are reviewed quarterly and will typically receive a decision within three to six months. Deadlines for submission of complete applications for quarterly calls are Dec. 1, March 1, June 1, and Sept. 1 every year. Applications for programmatic projects, or from partners who are new to the Foundation, are reviewed semiannually by the Board and will receive a decision within six to 12 months.

Recent mid-sized Community Support grants include:

- Construction of senior housing
- Upgrades to a rural youth recreation and activity center
- Pilot expansion of a behavioral health clinic
- A community garden and kitchen to promote food security
